

CID PHOTO COMPETITION WINNERS/PLACEGETTERS

DEVELOPMENT CATEGORY WINNER

Ethiopia, Africa: This Self Help Group Model empowers women to use their own resources to increase their economic security and well-being. Through enterprise and empowerment best practice techniques hundreds of thousands of women get new opportunities. Photo: Helen Manson, TEAR Fund New Zealand.

HUMANITARIAN CATEGORY WINNER

Bilale Camp, Nyala, Southern Darfur, Sudan: Mothers and children rest after a long journey to a clinic for internally displaced people supported by Caritas Aotearoa New Zealand. Photo: Mark Mitchell, Caritas Aotearoa New Zealand.

PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAHER CATEGORY WINNER

Sindhupalchowk District, Nepal: A Nepalese child receives tarpaulins distributed by ChildFund in the aftermath of the 2015 earthquake. Photo: Philip Maher, ChildFund

There was a very high standard of photos and an expansion of categories in the CID Photography competition this year. Because of that CID has decided to give out 2nd and 3rd places in each category to recognise the exceptional photography being accomplished across our sector. See below for the second and third places in each category.

CID PHOTO COMPETITION WINNERS/PLACEGETTERS

DEVELOPMENT 2ND PLACE

Tanna Island, Vanuatu: A march organised by the Lenakel office of the Vanuatu Women's Centre to kick off International Women's Day celebrations. Photo: Elizabeth Brown, VSA.

DEVELOPMENT 3RD PLACE

Emali, Kenya: Villagers rejoice after a borehole is drilled, supplying much-needed water for their crops, animals and their families. Photo: Shona Jennings, ChildFund.

HUMANITARIAN 2ND PLACE

Tanna Island, Vanuatu: Pregnant Rosaline and her daughters Amelia, 11 and Winnie, 7 are glad to be together after Cyclone Pam destroyed their home, their crops and nearly their family. TFNZ's partner is providing their family with seeds to re-plant their garden and teaching them about how to preserve the food they already have. Photo: Helen Manson, TEAR Fund New Zealand.

HUMANITARIAN 3RD PLACE

Talibeh camp, Jordan: Syrian refugees get a health check at the Madaba Clinic run CWS Partner DSPR (Department for Services to Palestinian Refugees). Photo: Trish Murray, CWS International Programmes Coordinator.

PROFESSIONAL 2ND PLACE

Bougainville: Leprosy patients wait to be seen at a village Health Clinic. Photo: Bruce Millar, The Leprosy Mission NZ.

PROFESSIONAL 3RD PLACE

'Eua, Tonga: Support from Oxfam is enabling the Tonga National Youth Congress to expand their organics programme and help vanilla farmers such as those in Masalu Halahala's community to grow export-quality crops.. Photo: Kristian Frires, Oxfam New Zealand.