

CID PHOTO COMPETITION WINNERS/PLACEGETTERS

DEVELOPMENT CATEGORY WINNER

FIRST EQUAL

Tanna, Vanuatu: Nasi Tuan planting crops in a communal irrigated garden to feed hungry families affected by drought in north Tanna. Photo: John Watson, Tearfund.

FIRST EQUAL

Kampala, Uganda: Isaiah and his mother Jane enjoy a moment together outside their home in an informal settlement in downtown Kampala. Tearfund's partner, Compassion supported Jane from pregnancy onwards. Photo: Helen Manson TearFund.

FIRST PRIZE EQUAL

HUMANITARIAN CATEGORY WINNER

Juba, South Sudan: A woman waits outside the food distribution centre in the Juba Protection of Civilian site. Photo: Simon Day, WVNZ.

PROFESSIONAL CATEGORYWINNER

Lukla, Nepal - Yandi Sherpa, 46, washes clothes outside her home. The Himalayan Trust partnered with the local community to fund a water system that pipes clean, safe water to 200 homes and businesses, benefiting 3000 people. The project is now self-sustaining. Photo Sam Tarling, Himalayan Trust.

CID PHOTO COMPETITION WINNERS/PLACEGETTERS

The competition ramped up another notch this year with more than 130 photos of which a huge proportion showed skill in both photography and development storytelling. We are talking to potential sponsors for next year so we can do more media around the competition.

DEVELOPMENT 2ND PLACE

Morobe Province, Papua New Guinea: Members of the Alang Daom trek into the remote parts of PNG to deliver trainings around the Fairtrade ANZ standards developed around the environment, good governance and gender equality, to farmers located in the PNG highlands. Photo: Kum NinSonga, Fair Trade ANZ.

DEVELOPMENT 3RD PLACE

Bangladesh: Renu Begum is an artisan who makes handmade paper at Biborton Enterprises which is supported with training, marketing and orders from Trade Aid's partner Prokritee. Many of the producers' children have now started entering University as a result of their mother's income. Photo Marinda Matthew, Trade Aid.

HUMANITARIAN 2ND PLACE

Lautoka, Fiji: A woman begins the slow clean up in the wake of Cyclone Winston. Photo: John Watson, Tearfund.

HUMANITARIAN 3RD PLACE

Jamune Village, Sindhupalchok Province, Nepal: A woman from the Pohari ethnic group in Jamune Village. Caritas Aotearoa New Zealand distributed emergency supplies there following the 2015 earthquakes. Photo: Mark Mitchell, Caritas Aotearoa New Zealand.

CID PHOTO COMPETITION WINNERS/PLACEGETTERS

PROFESSIONAL 2ND PLACE

Bekaa Valley, Lebanon: Zeinab , 14, is a Syrian refugee in one of the many camps. Her parents made her marry a distant relative 10 years her senior for protection from the dangers of being a vulnerable single women while living in a camp.
Photo: Jo Currie, WVNZ

PROFESSIONAL 3RD PLACE

Danbagl Village, Papua New Guinea - Each family receives one 20 litre jerry can, packets of soap and health information. Oxfam and local partner organisations in PNG are distributing up to 6,500 jerry cans. Photo Rodney Dekker, Oxfam. (P)